Would you be in favor of a four-year alignment cycle (with the option to consider significant changes on a case-by-case basis in the middle of that four year cycle)? Yes

At the December Executive Committee meeting, the committee unanimously approved that beginning with the 2014-15 school year, where possible, leave schools in their existing conferences and regions structure whenever appropriate when creating new multi-class events. The Alignment Committee had previously placed greater priority on balancing the size of conferences and regions when assigning schools to multi-class events. Member school feedback on this matter is welcome below:

Indicate any concerns you have with factors such as travel, geography, natural rivalries, finances, balance and any other considerations in regard to alignment.: The biggest factor for us is travel which impact finances. In Conference 23 I would suggest maybe a Glass and JF be added and Handley be removed, more of a Rt.29 corridor and would cut down on the expensive use of charter buses.

When schools are next aligned, would you prefer to stay in your current district?: No

If you answered "yes" above, are there other schools you would want added to your present district?:

If you answered "no" above, please indicate the reasons you prefer to move to (or form) another district.: We would like to break the district in half because of the travel involved going to the Roanoke Valley. They don't like traveling to our school either. The New River Valley Schools could break off to form a new district.

If you answered “yes” above, are there other schools you would want added to your present region?:

If you answered “no” above, are there other schools you would want added to your present region?: The amount of travel involved is excessive. For example, we played Fluvanna County in the Region 4A volleyball tournament which took 4 hours.

If you answered “no to questions 6, 9, 12 indicate the district, conference, region you would prefer to be placed in. Maybe their should be a sectional tournament before region to cut down on travel.

Would you be in favor of a four-year alignment cycle (with the option to consider significant changes on a case-by-case basis in the middle of that four year cycle)?

No

Indicate any concerns you have with factors such as travel, geography, natural rivalries, finances, balance and any other considerations in regard to alignment.: Travel is a big factor with our school since we are an outlier in our current classification. This hurts our finances because it appears that our district schools do not travel as well as our previous district. While our school size is 4A, our participation rate is equivalent to 1A and 2A schools because of the large geographical area we serve- 492 square miles.

No Comments In fast-growing parts of the state, four-year cycles will create significant competitive imbalances due to school size.

Indicate any concerns you have with factors such as travel, geography, natural rivalries, finances, balance and any other considerations in regard to alignment.: Current Region 4A North is likely to grow in excess of 28 member schools. The Alignment Committee and Executive Committee will need to realign to maintain balance between the size of 4A South and 4A North.

The Alignment Committee had previously placed greater priority on balancing the size of conferences and regions when assigning schools to multi-class events. Indicate any concerns you have with factors such as travel, geography, natural rivalries, finances, balance and any other considerations in regard to alignment.: With the geographic diversity in Conference 24, we will lose a lot of money as a Conference, mainly because of travel distances. (Even cheer lost money and volleyball lost almost $1,400.) Some long travel on school nights in the Conference tournaments.

Provide any additional comments below.: Please balance the Conferences!

I like the format but would like to see regions broken up into sub regions for playoff purposes. If you answered "yes" above, are there other schools you would want added to your present district?: If realignment dictates, I would like to see Clarke County and Strasburg in our district for geographical and travel reasons. Depending on which Loudoun County schools move up or down in classification, having Fauquier, Liberty, and/or Kettle Run in our district would be a viable option if there are enough Dulles District schools to form its own conference.

If you answered "no" above, please indicate the reasons you prefer to move to (or form) another district.:

When schools are next aligned, would you prefer to stay in your current conference?: Yes

If you answered "yes" above, are there other schools you would want added to your present conference.: This would again depend on what happens with the Dulles District/Loudoun County schools. If they have enough schools in 3A/4A to form its own conference, I would be in favor of adding Fauquier, Liberty, and/or Kettle Run since they have been members of the Northwestern District in the past. Clarke County and Strasburg would also be possibilities, as well as Warren County.

If you answered “no” above, please indicate the reasons you prefer to move to (or form) another conference.:

When schools are next aligned, would you prefer to stay in your current region?: Yes

If you answered “yes” above, are there other schools you would want added to your present region?: No, but some schools in the Fredericksburg area need to be moved to the South. The setup now with schools in Roanoke and further south in the NORTH region is, to be blunt, ridiculous. It is very expensive to the schools when considering travel, meals, and possible overnight stays, is not conducive to natural rivalries and spectator interest, and results in missed class time for athletes and coaches.

If you answered “no” above, are there other schools you would want added to your present region?:

If you answered “no to questions 6, 9, 12 indicate the district, conference, region you would prefer to be placed in. Any schools from Salem and further South should be placed in 4A South.

Would you be in favor of a four-year alignment cycle (with the option to consider significant changes on a case-by-case basis in the middle of that four year cycle)?

No Comments Too long of a period, especially since Loudoun County is building a new school every couple of years which dramatically affects its schools' numbers.

Indicate any concerns you have with factors such as travel, geography, natural rivalries, finances, balance and any other considerations in regard to alignment.: As noted earlier, the 4A North/South alignment needs to be addressed. Of course, each school or district has its own reasons for placement preference, but the VHSL or 4A Board needs to look at the matter logically and without bias and place schools accordingly. The matter should have been addressed last year but was not.

Provide any additional comments below.: I think the VHSL overall does an excellent job with balancing all of the concerns and desires of the 310+ member schools, but there are a couple of places where more decisiveness is needed to fairly place schools where they truly belong.

Would you be in favor of a four-year alignment cycle (with the option to consider significant changes on a case-by-case basis in the middle of that four year cycle)?

No Comments As a school on the bubble, literally the smallest 4A school, we feel like it is important to keep the two year cycle. The rationale behind the new classification system was to make sure schools were competing on an equal basis numerically. A four year cycle is too long and there are too many changes. If it was a four year cycle, who would initiate the changes? Would a school that is growing be obligated to move up, or would someone else have to make the recommendation? This could be a tough dynamic.

At the December Executive Committee meeting, the committee unanimously approved that beginning with the 2014-15 school year, where possible, leave schools in their existing conferences and regions structure whenever appropriate when creating new multi-class events. The Alignment Committee had previously placed greater priority on balancing the size of conferences and regions when assigning schools to multi-class events. Member school feedback on this matter is welcome below: We still feel like the Alignment Committee's priority on balancing the size of conferences and regions when assigning schools to multi-class events is important and worthwhile.

Indicate any concerns you have with factors such as travel, geography, natural rivalries, finances, balance and any other considerations in regard to alignment.: The new system has increased our travel, but we knew it would and came to terms with that before we appealed to our current conference. We are very happy with our current placement. It will be very interesting to see how the finances play out. Right now, we have not done great financially. We have been able to keep old rivalries and create new ones. It has been a nice balance.

Provide any additional comments below.: We are happy with our current placement and hope to stay in Conference 23 as long as our numbers remain at this level. Our school division is growing, but we are the smallest 4A school and the possibility of dropping a class is still possible. We will see how it works out.

No Comments Two years takes into account the ups and downs. A school who barely makes it into a class and then continues to grow would be at a very unfair advantage in years 3-4. Plus, scheduling now is for 2 years for sports like football.

Indicate any concerns you have with factors such as travel, geography, natural rivalries, finances, balance and any other considerations in regard to alignment.: Districts have "run their course". I would prefer that we do away with districts and either go with Conference regular season scheduling. I understand that Loudoun Schools have it easy with geography and travel with this issue.

At the December Executive Committee meeting, the committee unanimously approved that beginning with the 2014-15 school year, where possible, leave schools in their existing conferences and regions structure whenever appropriate when creating new multi-class events. The Alignment Committee had previously placed greater priority on balancing the size of conferences and regions when assigning schools to multi-class events. Member school feedback on this matter is welcome below: Every attempt should be made to balance the sizes of conferences, region, and classes. The standards in regards to size that were used in this first cycle should be continued.

Indicate any concerns you have with factors such as travel, geography, natural rivalries, finances, balance and any other considerations in regard to alignment.: This system has eliminated these problems for the regular season. Schools can handle more travel at playoff time. This new system is an example of progress.
